

Home | News | Conferences | Magazine | Directory | Reports | Video | Knowledge Base | Services | Login | Advertise

News Malabar Cements to resume operations this month

Malabar Cements to resume operations this month

Written by Global Cement staff
07 October 2016

Print | Email

India: Malabar Cements will restart operations later in October 2016, says EP Jayarajan, the Industry Minister of Kerala. The publicly owned cement producer stopped production due to lack of supply of raw materials in late September 2016, according to the Hindu newspaper. Laterite and limestone required for production will be sourced from Kasaragod and Rajasthan respectively.

Published in Global Cement News

Tagged under India Malabar Cements Limited Kerala Production Limestone Laterite

Related items

- UltraTech Cement receives approval from Competition Commission of India on bid for Binani Cement
- National Company Law Tribunal asks Binani Cement to consider out-of-court settlement
- Kakatiya Cement, Sugar & Industries to re-open cement plant in April 2018
- Anjani Portland Cement to build new clinker line at Chintalapalem plant
- Hearing for proposed Shree Cement plant fails to impress locals

Register for the 2nd Global CemProcess Conference & Exhibition

23 - 24 May 2018, London, UK

Process optimisation in cement manufacture

Global CemProcess is the conference and exhibition for the cement industry that looks at process optimisation, de-bottlenecking, production maximisation and troubleshooting.

Register >

Sign up for FREE to
Global Cement Weekly

Acquisition Brazil Cemex China Dangote
Egypt

Export Germany Government
HeidelbergCement Holcim Import India

Indonesia Lafarge LafargeHolcim Legal

Nigeria Order Pakistan Plant
Production Results Russia Sales
Saudi Arabia UK

Upgrade US Vietnam